Editors Blurb

G'day everyone.

Hopefully we can shortly get back into the swing of things. As of writing this, NSW has now gone something like 29 straight days without someone getting zapped by the plague. If only Victoria could do the same.

New Years eve was a bit of a wash out. Never go to Nundle pub for lunch on new years eve day. The trip to the farm on Aus long weekend was totally awesome. Sat and drank and swam (swammed) and didn't do much. But it was good.

Kinda looking forward to Coolah Tops trip over Easter. Essentially three lookouts, two huts to explore, the largest or tallest Snowgum in NSW (I still have not seen this), huge tall grass tree's, and five waterfalls are all things to see. The choice of at least five camp grounds - at least three grounds have new-ish pit loo's put in by National Parks over the past two years. There is not much technical driving, but the night drive out to Breeza lookout should be one of the best drives and views the club has done in a long time. Look out for Sugar Gliders—they are supposed to be everywhere.

See ya then.

/Bushy

Coolah Tops is a national park located in New South Wales, Australia, 258 kilometres (160 mi) northwest of Sydney, established on 5 July 1996. It is managed by the New South Wales National Parks and Wildlife Service. Its World Conservation Union category is II. It is situated 30 kilometres (19 mi) east of Coolah in the Liverpool Range, on the Coolah Creek Road. The park features waterfalls that plunge from the plateau. Giant grass trees and open forest with stands of snow gums shelter gliders, wallabies, eagles and owls. Camping and walking are the main recreational activities performed here. Views from the tops are possible over the Liverpool Plains. The sources of the Talbragar River and the Coolaburragundy River lie in the park.

Coolah Tops National Park is a playground for walkers and mountain bikers looking for a great cycling and camping experience. Sitting at the junction of the Warrumbungle and Liverpool ranges, Coolah Tops National Park is a beautiful landscape of giant grass trees, tall eucalypt forests and stands of huge snow gums. Take in spectacular views and see magnificent waterfalls on walking trails like The Falls link track, Racecourse track or Grasstrees track. Explore the Bundella track and Mullion track on your mountain bike. Birdwatchers should keep their eyes open, as Coolah Tops is home to an abundance of wildlife and birdlife, so you might see wallabies, eagles, gliders and rare owls. You may need to spend a weekend discovering everything that Coolah Tops has to offer. There's remote camping, so you can spend the night stargazing, or after a day of walking and mountain biking, perhaps you'd prefer to sleep soundly at rustic Bracken's Cottage.

Looking out across the beautiful landscape of Coolah Tops National Park, it's obvious why you'll find so much wildlife here. Wander quietly along one of the walking tracks and you'll probably have a close encounter with red-necked wallabies and eastern grey kangaroos. You might also find a wombat waddling through the campground. Coolah Tops has some of the highest population densities of greater gliders in Australia. At night, keep your torch handy to see greater gliders, ring-tailed possums and possibly feather-tailed gliders or a sugar glider in the nearby trees.

Pack your hiking boots and your mountain bike and be ready to get active in the bush at Coolah Tops. There are plenty of great walking tracks and trails to experience the bush on your bike. Make your way to lookouts like Shepherd's Peak or Breeza lookout for spectacular views to the north over the Liverpool Plains and the sheer escarpment. You'll also find several waterfalls along the escarpment where the creeks plunge over the plateau edge.

It is just a little over three hours from Tamworth to the front entrance to Coolah Tops.

Expect gravel roads and bring warming clothing. Travel to Coolah Tops on Friday 2nd April and return on Monday 5th April.

Meeting locations still to be decided : possibly in Quirindi for a 9am leave, and at Caroona (for those wishing to take the short-cut) at 9:30am. Arrival time at Coolah Tops is ETA 11:15am.

Trip report—Australia Day long Weekend at “The Farm”, Forbes River.

We arrived at ‘The Farm’ on Friday night at 10pm, setup, and joined Dave, Karma, and Aaron around the fire for a few hours.

The morning awoke to a nice beaut warm sunny morning, and I screamed like a girl immediately after plunging into the swimming hole. The water was a tad on the chilly side. At 10am Col & Leanne arrived, and by 11am we were all in the river once again trying to build a two foot high rock wall across the river. It has become the annual thing to do.

Sunday

Lounged around. Sat, ate, swam and drank. All day.

Monday morning saw the replacing of a rotting timber log beam, which brought much enjoyment and team building skills to the four males of the camp. A tree was cut, angles were out, and the log man-heaved into place with bolts for securement. After lunch, more swimming, sitting, lounging around drinking and eating was had. Monday arvo saw Josh & Crystal & family rock on up to spend the night, with tales of adventuring from the previous few days.

Trips of longer duration to various parts of Australia (eg Simpson Desert, Fraser Island, Cape York, Kakadu just for ideas) are planned annually and in advanced. The choice of trip you take is entirely yours, from easy scenic trips to beautiful areas of near inaccessible terrain. Other clubs activities include social outings, bush camping, bush walking, fishing, driver training days, Xmas in July, demonstrations and inter club activities.

Trip Leader Responsibilities

- The trip leader is responsible for ensuring that the trip is conducted in a safe and responsible manner.

- A reconnaissance trip and good maps and/or knowledge of the area are required to conduct a safe trip.
- Any permission for access needs to be obtained beforehand.
- It is your responsibility to decide if the weather conditions have altered the trip grading, as you may need to advise the participants before the trip.

- Proceed at a legal pace that suits all participants, and keep in touch with your designated control vehicles to judge the convoy's progress.
- It is your responsibility to assess the track conditions, and guide the group throughout the trip to ensure a safe and enjoyable outing.
